

of spiritually circumcised Israel that is today possessing heavenly Jerusalem has in comparison to the amount of knowledge Israel will have at the end of the seven endtime years of tribulation is as the geographical territory controlled by Israel was when the Ark of the Covenant was returned (1 Sam 7:1-4) in comparison to the geographical territory Solomon inherited from his father, David.

But those hundred plus thousand disciples who once had a little knowledge thanks to Armstrong but who have rejected what they had, from them will be taken salvation. They no longer have any knowledge to lose; they have only their spiritual lives.

Meanwhile, those who continue to grow in grace and knowledge are children of light (1 Thess 5:5). They, we, are not of the night. We neither spiritually sleep nor run to drunkenness. Having put on the breastplate of faith and love, we encourage one another, building one another up, just as we are doing today, this Sabbath day, one Sabbath closer to when the second Passover liberation of Israel will occur.
